INSTRUCTOR SYLLABUS

Course Description : This course is a survey of the fundamental principles of political science, including, and more emphasis of, the American system of government and the origins and development of the Constitution of the United States. Its emphasis is placed on constitutional backgrounds and the organization and functions of the executive, legislative, and judicial segments of the national government, civil liberties and civil rights, public opinion, media, bureaucracies, and domestic and foreign policy. This course satisfies the Legislative requirements for teacher certification.

Course Purpose: Government 2305, as taught at South Plains College, is a reading intensive course designed to acquaint the learner with the origin and development of the US Constitution, structure and powers of the national government including the legislative, executive, and judicial branches, federalism, political participation, the national election process, public policy, civil liberties and civil rights. This course meets the statutory requirements as set forth by the State of Texas.

Recommended Textbook:

- Ginsberg, Benjamin, Theodore Lowi, Caroline Tolbert, Margaret Weir. 2018. We the People: Twelfth Edition. W.W. Norton & Company.
- ISBN-13: 978-0393679595

Required Technology:

- Reliable access to computer or laptop.
- Reliable internet connection

Grading Scale:

1000 – 900 points = A

899 – 800 points = B

799 – 700 points = C

699 – 600 points = D

599 and below = F

Coursework:

(1) Discussions (3) = 300 points / 100 points each

(2) Quizzes (10) = 450 points / 45 points each

(3) Essay (1) = 200 points

Built-in Bonus:

(4) Syllabus Quiz (1) = 15 points

(5) Literacy Test (1) = 15 points

(6) Public Opinion Poll = 20 points

(1) Discussion Postings: Four times throughout the semester you will write a discussion post which will be your reaction to an article related to Texas government and reply to a classmate's discussion. These can be found on the left side bar labeled "Discussion Board" as well as within each section folder.

- These original posts must be at least 400 words in length.

- Additionally, you must also reply (150 words) to one of your fellow classmates' posts.

- A full rubric and instructions can be found at the end of this syllabus.

(2) Quizzes: You will have a total of 11 quizzes. These cover each chapter we cover for class. You can find these in each section folder in their respective "Quizzes" folder. Your top 10 highest quiz grades will be used for calculation of your final grade.

When taking these quizzes, the questions on quizzes will be delivered one at a time and student will be allowed to revisit the questions. It is important to remember to click "Save Answer" before moving to the next question. Once you begin the quiz you must complete the quiz in its entirety. Questions not completed during the allotted time will be counted wrong. You will have 15 minutes to answer 15 questions and only one attempt.

You can find these at the bottom of the Course Home Page in each respective Section folder.

(3) Essay: At the end of the semester you will need to turn in an essay. Instructions and rubric provided at the end of the syllabus and on Blackboard. Topics can be found on Blackboard. You will use Turnitin on Blackboard to turn in this assignment.

(4) Syllabus Quiz: You will have an unlimited amount of attempts and time to achieve full credit. This assignment can be found in folder “Course Syllabus: Start Here.” It is a quiz over the syllabus and a syllabus agreement.

(5) Literacy Test: You will have 10 minutes to answer 10 questions taken from Alabama’s 1965 Literacy Test. Do your best. This is a completion grade. This assignment can be found in folder “Course Syllabus: Start Here.”

(6) Public Opinion Poll: You will be given a link on Blackboard for a Google Form. Be sure to provide your SPC email so that you can receive credit.

Note: Expect written assignments to be graded within a business week of the due date.

Course Requirements, Expectations, and Policies

Late Work/Extra Credit: You will NOT have the opportunity to earn extra credit points during the course, so do not ask. No late work will be accepted since you have ample time to complete assignments. There are no exceptions to this policy. Exams can only be made up with proper documentation such as a doctor’s note.

Attendance Policy: Students are expected to attend class regularly and prepared. If you arrive more than 10 minutes late you will be counted absent. If you leave early without telling me beforehand, you will be counted absent. If you sleep during class, you will be counted absent.

Drop Policy: If I do not see you, hear from you, or you do not log-in to Blackboard for 3 consecutive weeks, I will drop you from the course. Besides that, it is your responsibility to drop the course.

Disruption of Classroom Environment: Your professor will not tolerate any disruption of the classroom environment. This includes any problems your facilitator encounters with you AND hateful/disrespectful remarks made in the classroom, on discussion postings, mail, or chat. I will drop you with an F for violation of this policy.

Technology: No cell phone, Apple Watch, iPod, etc. usage during class. The use of cellular/mobile phones is prohibited in the classroom. If you are expecting a call or need to leave early, notify me immediately or before class and I will make an exception for you.

Students may use a laptop computer during class but are not permitted to instant message others, check social network updates, email, etc. The usage of the laptop computers is meant for taking notes and considered a privilege, not a right, given to you by me and can be taken away at any time.

If you use any electronic device during an exam, it will automatically be taken up and you will be given a zero.

Emailing Your Professor: I require students to send a professional email when contacting me. If you send an unprofessional email to me, I will not respond. In addition, do not attempt to argue with me over a grade you receive, if you do I will either lower your grade further, or drop you with an F. Please include what course you are enrolled in (Example: GOVT 2305.156).

DO NOT attempt to communicate with me through Blackboard. I only communicate through email, preferably your SPC email.

Unless there are unforeseen circumstances, you can expect me to reply to emails within 24 hours. If I do not, don't be afraid to email me again or forward your message to me.

Technology Problems: If you have an unreliable server or computer, please go to a public computer to do your work. If for some reason the professor or the Blackboard server has made a mistake, you will not be penalized.

Be aware that when something only happens to you, it is your problem not mine. Please always start early on assignments and finish early to avoid problems. Save assignments in Word to avoid losing your work.

I will be of no help with computer problems, mechanical failures, ISP problems, etc. You can contact Blackboard and Tech Support (blackboard@southplainscollege.edu) for any Blackboard related issues. If you are having trouble logging in to Blackboard or seeing your courses, please contact Blackboard Support. You can call the office Monday through Friday from 8:00 am to 4:00 pm at 806-716-2180

Academic Integrity

Plagiarism is the taking of credit for something that is not the work of the owner. It is cheating and will not be tolerated. See the General Catalog for more information on plagiarism. Cheating or dishonesty of any type in this course will result in the student being dropped from this course with an "F."

The best way to avoid this situation is using your own original work and citing sources. Links to help you cite sources are provided on Blackboard in "Helpful Links" as well as below rubrics in the syllabus.

Academic English

South Plains College requires all students to become proficient in “academic English,” a form of English typically used in academic, professional, and business contexts. While slang, regional idioms, and informal kinds of self – expression are appropriate in some contexts, they are out of place in academic writing.

For help, there is a link in “Helpful Hints” that describes writing for research purposes on Blackboard.

Diversity Statement

In this class, the teacher will establish and support an environment that values and nurtures individual and group differences and encourages engagement and interaction. Understanding and respecting multiple experiences and perspectives will serve to challenge and stimulate all of us to learn about others, about the larger world and about ourselves. By promoting diversity and intellectual exchange, we will not only mirror society as it is, but also model society as it should and can be.

SPC Standard Disability Statement

Students with disabilities, including but not limited to physical, psychiatric, or learning disabilities, who wish to request accommodations in this class should notify the Disability Services Office early in the semester so that the appropriate arrangements may be made. In accordance with federal law, a student requesting accommodations must provide acceptable documentation of his/her disability to the Disability Services Office. For more information, call or visit the Disability Services Office at Levelland (Student Health & Wellness Office) 806-716-2577, Reese Center (Building 8) & Lubbock Center 806-716-4675, or Plainview Center (Main Office) 806-716-4302 or 806-296-9611.

Non-Discrimination Statement

South Plains College does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, disability or age in its programs and activities. The following person has been designated to handle inquiries regarding the non-discrimination policies: Vice President for Student Affairs, South Plains College -1401 College Avenue, Box 5, Levelland, TX 79336, 806-894-9611

Title IX Pregnancy Accommodations Statement

If you are pregnant, or have given birth within six months, Under Title IX you have a right to reasonable accommodations to help continue your education. To activate accommodations you must submit a Title IX pregnancy accommodations request, along with specific medical documentation, to the Director of Health and Wellness. Once approved, notification will be sent to the student and instructors. It is the student's responsibility to work with the instructor to arrange accommodations. Contact Crystal Gilster, Director of Health and Wellness at 806-716-2362 or email cgilster@southplainscollege.edu for assistance.

Campus Concealed Carry

Campus Concealed Carry - Texas Senate Bill - 11 (Government Code 411.2031, et al.) authorizes the carrying of a concealed handgun in South Plains College buildings only by persons who have been issued and are in possession of a Texas License to Carry a Handgun. Qualified law enforcement officers or those who are otherwise authorized to carry a concealed handgun in the State of Texas are also permitted to do so. Pursuant to Penal Code (PC) 46.035 and South Plains College policy, license holders may not carry a concealed handgun in restricted locations. For a list of locations, please refer to the SPC policy at:

(http://www.southplainscollege.edu/human_resources/policy_procedure/hhc.php)

Pursuant to PC 46.035, the open carrying of handguns is prohibited on all South Plains College campuses. Report violations to the College Police Department at 806-716-2396 or 9-1-1.

SPC Mask Policy: It is the policy of South Plains College for the Fall 2020 semester that as a condition of on-campus enrollment, all students are required to engage in safe behaviors to avoid the spread of COVID-19 in the SPC community. Such behaviors specifically include the requirement that all students properly wear CDC-compliant face coverings while in SPC buildings including in classrooms, labs, hallways, and restrooms. Failure to comply with this policy may result in dismissal from the current class session. If the student refuses to leave the classroom or lab after being dismissed, the student may be referred to the Dean of Students on the Levelland campus or the Dean/Director of external centers for Student Code of Conduct Violation.

COVID

If a person believes he/she has been exposed to COVID-19, they will be requested to remain off campus. Reporting should occur as follows:

Students – report to instructor or Health Services, DeEtte Edens, BSN, RN

Recommendation for Testing

- Here is some information that may be helpful to make a decision about getting tested:
- Most people have mild illness and can recover at home without medical care. Contact your healthcare provider if your symptoms are getting worse or if you have questions about your health.
- Decisions about testing are made by state and local health departments or healthcare providers.
- If you have symptoms of COVID-19 and are not tested, it is important to stay home.

IF YOU ARE TESTED POSITIVE, PLEASE CONTACT DEETTE EDENS, BSN, RN AT 806-716-2376 OR DEEDENS@SOUTHPLAINSCOLLEGE.EDU FOR QUARANTINE GUIDANCE.

Asymptomatic Positive (Tested positive for COVID-19 but had no symptoms) - If a person continues to have no symptoms, he/she can be with others after 10 days have passed since positive test. Following the 10 days, the person is required to wear a face covering when in contact with anyone.

Syllabus Contract/Amendments: All content within this syllabus is subject to change at any time and is completely up to the discretion of the professor. Students will be notified of such change(s) with appropriate time to adapt. By enrolling in this course you agree to follow all guidelines in this syllabus and be fully responsible for the grade you earn.

If campus operations are required to change because of health concerns related to the COVID-19 pandemic, it is possible that this course will move to a fully online delivery format. Should that be necessary, students will need to have access to a webcam and microphone for remote delivery of the class.
